7. In case of unavailability of places at the Event due to exceeding the limit of persons or other reasons, such as lack of appropriate proportions between leaders and followers, the registering person may be informed about placement on the waiting list. In case of being placed on the waiting list, the registering person may receive an email accepting participation in the Event at a later date than the date specified in point

III. Participation Fee

1. Payment should be made according to the instructions provided by the Organizer, in the follow-up email, within 14 days from its sending.
2. In case the required fee is not paid within the specified period, the Organizer reserves the right not to conclude the agreement, which is tantamount to the inability to participate in the Event.

IV. Right of Withdrawal from the Agreement/Resignation.

1. The agreement concluded between the Participant and the Organizer concerns services related to entertainment events, for which a period of service provision has been designated. Therefore, based on art. 38 para. 1 point 12 of the Act of May 30, 2014, on consumer rights (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 2759, as amended), the Participant is not entitled to withdraw from a distance contract.
2. Resignation from participation in the Event with a refund is possible only in the case of changing the Participant. The Organizer can indicate the new Participant from the waiting list or the resigning Participant. If a new Participant is indicated by the resigning Participant, the new Participant must be accepted by the Organizer. Changing the Participant without informing the Organizer is not allowed.
3. A resignation request should be sent by the resigning Participant to the following email address: warsawqtm@gmail.com. The email message should include identifying data of the resigning Participant, registration data, bank account number for the refund of participation fees paid for the Event, and, if applicable, data of the new Participant.
4. The new Participant is obliged to fill out the registration form following the provisions of Chapter II.
5. In case the change of Participant is accepted by the Organizer, and both the resigning Participant and the new Participant fulfill all formalities according to this Regulation, including payment for participation, the resigning Participant will receive a refund of the participation fees paid for the Event, with a deduction of 15% of its value.

V. Rights, Obligations, and Responsibilities of the Organizer and Participants.

1. On the first day of the Participant's participation in the Event, the Participant will receive an item from the Organizer identifying the Participant (e.g., a wristband), the presentation of which will be a condition for entry to the Event. The item will be issued after verification by the Organizer of the Participant's data based on a valid identity document.
2. The Participant is obliged to have the identifier visible throughout participation in the Event.
3. The Organizer may refuse entry to the Event to individuals:
 - 1) Whose participation in the Event has not been accepted by the Organizer;
 - 2) Who does not possess the identifying item referred to in point 1 above;
 - 3) Who poses a threat, including:
 - a) Possessing weapons or other items/materials posing a danger to other individuals or property;
 - b) Behaving aggressively/uncivilly.
4. The Participant is obliged to behave in a manner that does not endanger the safety of other individuals and property.

5. If the Participant's behavior leads to damage on the Organizer's side, the Organizer is entitled to seek compensation from the Participant according to general principles.
6. The Organizer is liable to the Participant according to general principles.
7. The Organizer is not responsible for property left by the Participant without supervision and/or appropriate security during participation in the Event.
8. The Participant participating in the Event is obliged to comply with the provisions of the law, including sanitary requirements.
9. Minors may participate in the Event under the supervision of their parent or legal guardian. Minors participate in the Event under the sole responsibility of the individuals who have custody over them.
10. Only Participants who, to the best of their knowledge, are not infected with the SARS-CoV-2 virus, are not in quarantine or are not under epidemiological supervision are entitled to participate in the event.
11. The Organizer reserves the right to introduce additional security measures related to the SARS-CoV-2 virus epidemic.
12. The Organizer shall not be liable to the Participant for failure to perform any obligations arising from the agreement to the extent that this is caused by force majeure. Force majeure means an external, sudden, unpredictable event independent of the Organizer's will, preventing the performance of the agreement in whole or in part, permanently or for a certain period, which cannot be prevented or countered with due diligence by the Organizer, including war, epidemic, pandemic, sudden atmospheric event, closure of borders and airports, caused by the state of the epidemic in connection with infections with the SARSCoV-2 virus.
13. The Participant is obliged to familiarize themselves with detailed regulations regarding entry into the country and rules of movement within its territory. Failure on the part of the Participant does not constitute a basis for a refund.
14. During the event, photographic and video documentation will be taken, which may be used for promoting future editions and published on social media. Acceptance of these Regulations is synonymous with granting consent to the processing of images for the aforementioned purposes.

VI. Changes in Event Organization.

1. The Organizer is entitled to cancel the Event.
2. In the event of cancelation of the Event, the Participant is entitled to a refund of the participation fees paid for the Event, minus online payment costs.
3. The Organizer is not responsible for any other costs incurred by the Participant, such as transportation or accommodation costs.
4. In justified cases, the Organizer is entitled to introduce changes regarding the organization of the Event, including changes to the venue, date, subcontractors, and price changes, especially in the case of:
 - a) Changes in applicable laws;
 - b) Issuance of a decision by public administration authorities or courts requiring changes;
 - c) Termination or non-performance of the agreement by subcontractors;
 - d) Force majeure.

5. If the change concerns the alteration of the date or venue of the Event, the Participant is entitled to withdraw from the contract within 14 days from the date of notification of the change in venue or date of the Event. The declaration of withdrawal should be sent to the email address: warsawqtm@gmail.com. The aforementioned entitlement does not apply to changes in the venue or date of the Event due to force majeure. In the event of withdrawal from the contract, the Participant will receive a refund of the fees paid within 14 days from the date of submitting the declaration of withdrawal.

VII. Complaints.

1. A person conducting activities with the Organizer based on the Regulations has the right to file a complaint regarding services provided by the Organizer in connection with the Event.
2. The complaint should be sent to the email address: warsawqtm@gmail.com, indicating the identifying data of the person submitting the complaint, registration details, and a description of the matter.
3. The complaint should be submitted no later than 14 days from the date of the event giving rise to the complaint.
4. The Organizer will respond to the complaint electronically to the email address provided by the complainant within 30 days of receiving it.
5. The Organizer may request the person submitting the complaint to provide additional information within a period not exceeding 14 days, along with a warning that if the complaint is not supplemented within the specified period, it will be left without consideration. The Organizer will promptly inform the person submitting the complaint of the decision to leave the complaint without consideration.
